PRESENTATION

For HUMANICEMOS DH, it is of great interest to receive the media who, through their publications, want to make this project of economic and social reincorporation visible world-wide.

This Code must be read and completed by all those interested in conducting interviews or doing anything that involves managing official, formal or informal information from HUMANICEMOS DH, in any of its offices or with any of its members that represent the organization individually or collectively.

This Code will be signed before the start of the communicative activity to be developed and will be delivered to the spokesperson of HUMANICEMOS DH in charge.

HUMANICEMOS DH is a Civil Humanitarian Demining Organization, created under the Peace Agreement between the Colombian Government and the FARC-EP in 2016. The organization fosters life and environmental sustainability and work to contribute to social and economic development in the regions and areas affected by antipersonnel mines left by the different actors of the armed conflict in Colombia.

The Regional Base of HUMANICEMOS DH, where our training courses are developed, is located in an area of the Territorial Training and Reincorporation Area (ETCR), in the village Aguabonita II, municipality of La Montañita - Caquetá.

HUMANICEMOS DH is a Civil Demining Organization that is governed by the humanitarian principles of neutrality, humanity and impartiality.

Therefore, the information, documentaries or articles related to HUMANICEMOS DH and published by different media, must consider the following concepts, in order to maintain an atmosphere of constructive, collaborative, conciliatory, inclusive and participatory dialogue that allows to protect the interests of all the parties involved.

Refer to:	Not refer to:
Personnel in process of reincorporation to the social, economic and political life of the country	Reinserted-Reintegrated personnel
Decommissioning of weapons	Demobilization
Personnel in process of reincorporation	Ex combatants-ex guerrillas
Contribution to identify areas contaminated by antipersonnel mines	Information on antipersonnel mines
Demining organization created under the Peace Agreement	Organization from the Ex guerrillas – Demining organization from the FARC-EP or FARC
Areas suspicious of containing mines left by different actors of the armed conflict in Colombia	Areas mined by the FARC-EP

HUMANICEMOS DH has appointed official spokespersons for interaction with the media, in the Central Office (Bogotá) and in the Regional Operations Base (Caquetá). The person in charge of the Communications Management process, Angela Orrego (Deputy Director) is the one who authorizes and coordinates press reports, communication events and interviews. The interviews authorized individually with some of the members of HUMANICEMOS DH should refer exclusively to their life projects.
